

PRINTABLE ITINERARY

Suggested bar plans for 1, 2 or 3 days

From our guide Top 10 Best Bars in Prague. Print it or save it to your phone.

You can see the best of Prague's bars in three evenings by grouping them by area. The itinerary below is also available as a free printable PDF, which the site adds after the quick answer.

Day 1: The National Theatre area

Start with an early dinner near Národní, then book Forbína for the first drink of the evening. Walk to Alma on V Jirchářích for a second, more experimental round, and finish with a rum or absinthe at Hemingway Bar if you have a booking. All three are within a short walk of each other, so you will not need transport.

Day 2: The Old Town

Begin with an early drink at AnonymouS on Michalská, then walk to Tretter's on V Kolkovně for a classic cocktail. Finish at Black Angel's Bar, below Old Town Square, for a late drink in the Gothic cellar. Use the metro or a night tram to return to your hotel, rather than looking for a taxi in the square.

Day 3: Beyond the centre

Spend the afternoon at Cobra in Letná, with a walk through the park beforehand. Take the tram towards Vinohrady in the early evening for Taigen if it is open, or Vinograf for wine. If you prefer a view, finish at Cloud 9 Sky Bar in Karlín just before sunset, then walk back along the river.

The 10 places at a glance

1. Forbína

How to get there: Tram to Národní divadlo, then a one-minute walk to the corner of Národní.

How long to spend: Ninety minutes to two hours.

Best time to go: Early evening on a weekday, with a booking.

Tip: Ask for a drink you would not normally order, and let the bartender explain how it connects to the theatre theme.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

2. Alma

How to get there: Tram to Jiráskovo náměstí or Národní divadlo, then a short walk along V Jirchářích.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: Early evening, or an afternoon visit for a quieter drink.

Tip: Tell the bartender your favourite flavours and ask for a tailored drink rather than choosing from the list.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

3. Black Angel's Bar

How to get there: Metro to Staroměstská, then a short walk to Old Town Square.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: A weekday evening, with a table booked.

Tip: Ask for a table in the main vaulted room rather than the bar stools if you want the full effect of the cellar.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

4. Hemingway Bar

How to get there: Tram or Metro to Národní třída, then a short walk to Opatovická.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: An early evening slot, booked in advance.

Tip: Ask for a rum flight or a Parisian-style absinthe if you want the bar's signature experience.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

5. Tretter's

How to get there: Metro to Staroměstská or Náměstí Republiky, then a short walk to V Kolovně.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: Early evening, before the weekend crowd.

Tip: Order a classic and judge the bar on how well it is made.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

6. AnonymouS Bar

How to get there: Metro to Můstek or Staroměstská, then a short walk along Michalská.

How long to spend: One hour.

Best time to go: Early evening, when it is easier to get a table.

Tip: Ask about the UV menu, which is the bar's signature feature.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

7. Taigen

How to get there: Metro to Náměstí Míru, then a short walk towards Budečská.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: An early evening on an open weekday.

Tip: Confirm the opening days and book ahead, since the room has few seats.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

8. Cobra

How to get there: Tram to Letenské náměstí or Metro to Vltavská, then a short walk.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: Late afternoon or early evening, when it is relaxed and easy to get a seat.

Tip: Combine it with a walk in Letná Park before or after your drink.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

9. Cloud 9 Sky Bar

How to get there: Metro to Florenc or Křižíkova, then a short walk to the Hilton.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: Just before sunset on a clear evening.

Tip: Check that the terrace is open before you go, since it depends on the weather and season.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

10. Vinograf

How to get there: Tram or Metro to Náměstí Republiky or Můstek, then a short walk to Senovážné náměstí.

How long to spend: One to two hours.

Best time to go: Early evening, after the work crowd has left.

Tip: Ask for a Moravian flight, and let the staff pick a white, a red and a sparkling wine.

Read more | Open in Google Maps

Getting around Prague at night

The centre is compact, and most of the bars above are within a short walk of a tram stop or metro station. Prague's public transport is run by the Prague Public Transit Company, and a single ticket system covers trams, the metro and buses. The metro closes around midnight, but night trams and night buses run through the small hours, so you can return to most districts without a taxi.

If you use a taxi, book through an app or a reputable company rather than hailing one in a tourist area, since overcharging is a known problem. Walking between bars in the Old Town is simple, but cobbled streets can be slippery after rain, so wear sensible shoes.

Opening times, prices and transport change often, so check with each venue or operator before you go. For the full guide, photos and FAQs, see <https://toptravelinsider.com/top-10-best-bars-in-prague/>.