PRINTABLE ITINERARY

Suggested bar plan for 1, 2 or 3 days: a 3-Day Bangkok Bar Itinerary

From our guide Top 10 Best Bars in Bangkok. Print it or save it to your phone.

This plan groups the bars by area so you spend your time drinking rather than sitting in traffic. It also works as a free printable itinerary. Keep each night to two or three bars, and book where you can.

Day 1: Riverside classics

Start in the late afternoon at BKK Social Club at the Four Seasons for a lively first drink. Move to The Bamboo Bar at the Mandarin Oriental for jazz, arriving early because it takes walk-ins only. Finish with a sunset or late view from Sky Bar at State Tower, which is a short taxi or BTS ride away. If you prefer to see the view first, reverse the order and end with jazz.

Day 2: Chinatown and Silom

Eat street food on Yaowarat Road in the early evening, then walk to Teens of Thailand on Soi Nana for a gin and tonic. Move on to Opium for a cocktail in the old shophouse. If you still have energy, take a taxi to Bar Sathorn at The House on Sathorn for a last drink in the heritage mansion.

Day 3: Central Bangkok, Sukhumvit and Thonglor

Begin in the garden at AQUA Bar for a relaxed early drink, then walk or ride to Lennon's at Rosewood for the vinyl speakeasy. Take a taxi to Bar Us on Sukhumvit 26 for savoury, inventive drinks, then finish at Dry Wave Cocktail Studio in Thonglor. If four bars is too many, pick the two that suit your taste best.

The 10 places at a glance

1. Dry Wave Cocktail Studio

How to get there: BTS Skytrain to Thong Lo, then a short taxi or motorbike ride down Soi 13.
How long to spend: Two hours.
Best time to go: Early in the evening, or on a weeknight, for a better chance of a seat.
Tip: Order one Super Classic first, then ask the team to suggest a second drink in a different style.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

2. Bar Us

How to get there: BTS to Phrom Phong, then a short taxi ride or walk to Sukhumvit Soi 26.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, before the busiest hours.
Tip: Ask about the drinks that use ingredients you would not normally find in a cocktail, then compare two very different styles.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

3. Lennon's

How to get there: BTS to Chit Lom, then a short walk to the hotel.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, when the room is calmer and the music is easier to enjoy.
Tip: Reserve in advance and check the current opening days on the hotel's page before you go.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

4. Bar Sathorn

How to get there: BTS to Chong Nonsi, then a short taxi ride or walk to North Sathorn Road.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, when the mansion is quiet and the light is soft.
Tip: Check opening days and any weekend music before you go, as listings differ.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

5. BKK Social Club

How to get there: BTS to Saphan Taksin, then a taxi or the hotel's river shuttle if available (check before you go).
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening for a seat, or later for a livelier crowd.
Tip: Reserve a table for Friday and Saturday, and ask the bartender for a drink in your preferred style.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

6. AQUA Bar

How to get there: BTS to Ratchadamri, then a short walk along Rajadamri Road.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Late afternoon or early evening, when the garden is at its best.
Tip: Ask about drinks that use seasonal produce, and check the opening times on the hotel's page.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

7. Opium

How to get there: MRT to Wat Mangkon, then a short walk or taxi ride into Chinatown.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, after dinner on Yaowarat Road.
Tip: Reserve ahead and check the current menu and opening days before you go.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

8. Teens of Thailand

How to get there: MRT to Wat Mangkon, then a short walk to Soi Nana.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, before the room fills up.
Tip: Ask the bartender for the gin of the day, and check the opening days before you go.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

9. The Bamboo Bar

How to get there: BTS to Saphan Taksin, then the hotel's river shuttle or a short taxi ride to the Mandarin Oriental.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, to get a seat before the music begins.
Tip: Walk in early, as reservations are not taken, and check the music schedule first.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

10. Sky Bar

How to get there: BTS to Saphan Taksin, then a short walk to State Tower.
How long to spend: One hour.
Best time to go: Just before sunset on a clear day.
Tip: Check the current dress code on the lebua website, and book a table if you want to avoid a wait.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

Getting around Bangkok's bars

Bangkok traffic can be slow, so plan your route before you set off. The BTS Skytrain and MRT cover most of the areas in this guide and are the fastest option in the early evening. Taxis and ride-hailing apps are convenient late at night, but use the meter or confirm the fare through the app. River boats and hotel shuttles can be a pleasant option to reach riverside hotels, though schedules change, so check before you go.

Keep your night within one or two districts, and avoid crossing the city at rush hour. For official city information, the Tourism Authority of Thailand has visitor guides for Bangkok.

Opening times, prices and transport change often, so check with each venue or operator before you go. For the full guide, photos and FAQs, see https://toptravelinsider.com/top-10-best-bars-in-bangkok/.