PRINTABLE ITINERARY

Suggested bar plans for 1, 2 or 3 days

From our guide Top 10 Best Bars in Lisbon. Print it or save it to your phone.

You can taste the best of Lisbon's bar scene in three evenings by grouping the stops by area. Each day keeps the stops close together, so you spend less time travelling between them.

Day 1: Príncipe Real cocktails

Start with a ginjinha at A Ginjinha near Rossio, then take a taxi or walk uphill to Príncipe Real. Begin with a drink at Pavilhão Chinês, enjoy dinner nearby, and finish with a cocktail at Cinco Lounge. If you still have energy, end the night at Foxtrot.

Day 2: Bairro Alto, fado and a rooftop

Spend the afternoon in Chiado and Bairro Alto, then head to Park for a sunset drink. Walk down to Tasca do Chico for an hour of fado, and finish with a nightcap in one of the small bars in the surrounding streets.

Day 3: Pink Street and a quieter finish

Begin the evening at Pensão Amor in Cais do Sodré, then walk along Pink Street to Musicbox if there is a gig you like. For a calmer night, take a taxi to Procópio for classic cocktails, or travel to Alcântara for craft beer at Quimera Brewpub earlier in the day.

The 10 places at a glance

1. Pavilhão Chinês

How to get there: Walk from Rato or Príncipe Real, or take a short taxi from the centre.
How long to spend: One to two hours, longer if you want a table in the billiards room.
Best time to go: Early evening, when there is room to explore without a crowd.
Tip: Walk through every room before choosing a seat, as the best collections are in the back.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

2. Pensão Amor

How to get there: Metro, train or tram to Cais do Sodré, then walk to Rua do Alecrim.
How long to spend: One to two hours for drinks, longer on event nights.
Best time to go: Early evening for a seat, or late for the full buzz.
Tip: Look at the opening times for burlesque or live music nights if you want a show, or avoid them if you want quiet.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

3. Park

How to get there: Walk from Chiado or Cais do Sodré, or take a short taxi to Calçada do Combro.
How long to spend: One to two hours around sunset.
Best time to go: An early evening arrival, before the sunset queue forms.
Tip: Dress in layers, because the roof can be breezy after dark.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

4. Procópio

How to get there: Taxi or a walk from Amoreiras or Rato.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening, when it is quiet and you can talk.
Tip: Ask the bartender for a recommendation, because the menu is long and the classics are well made.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

5. A Ginjinha

How to get there: Metro to Rossio, then walk to Largo de São Domingos.
How long to spend: Ten minutes.
Best time to go: Mid-afternoon or early evening, before dinner.
Tip: Try it once with the cherry and once without, to see which you prefer.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

6. Cinco Lounge

How to get there: Walk from Príncipe Real or Bairro Alto, about ten minutes from Chiado.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early in the evening, for the best chance of a seat at the bar.
Tip: Describe the flavours you like and let the bartender suggest something from the menu.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

7. Foxtrot

How to get there: Walk from Príncipe Real or Bairro Alto, or take a short taxi.
How long to spend: One hour.
Best time to go: Early evening, to find a seat.
Tip: Check opening days before you go, as listings differ.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

8. Tasca do Chico

How to get there: Walk from Chiado or Baixa, or take a tram or Metro to Baixa-Chiado.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening on a night with fado, before the room fills.
Tip: Stay quiet during the singing and tip politely if a collection is made.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

9. Musicbox

How to get there: Metro, train or tram to Cais do Sodré, then walk to Rua Nova do Carvalho.
How long to spend: Two hours or more.
Best time to go: Late evening, once the music starts.
Tip: Check the programme in advance, as the style of music changes from night to night.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

10. Quimera Brewpub

How to get there: Tram 15E or a local train to Alcântara, then walk. Check the route on the Carris website.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Early evening or a weekend afternoon.
Tip: Ask the staff for a recommendation if you want to try more than one beer.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

Getting around Lisbon

Lisbon has a Metro, trams, buses and trains, and most of the bars in this guide are near a stop. Use the Metro de Lisboa website and the Carris website for routes, tickets and timetables.

The central districts are hilly, and the cobbled pavements can be slippery after rain, so wear comfortable shoes with a good grip. Walking between Chiado, Bairro Alto and Príncipe Real is possible but steep, so a short taxi ride is often easier at the end of a long evening.

Opening times, prices and transport change often, so check with each venue or operator before you go. For the full guide, photos and FAQs, see https://toptravelinsider.com/top-10-best-bars-in-lisbon/.