PRINTABLE ITINERARY

A 3-Day Lisbon Rooftop Itinerary

From our guide Top 10 Best Rooftop Bars in Lisbon. Print it or save it to your phone.

You can see the best of Lisbon's rooftops in three evenings by grouping them by area. The itinerary below is also available as a free printable PDF, which the site adds after the quick answer.

Day 1: Chiado rooftops

Start in the late afternoon at Entretanto, then walk to Topo Chiado for sunset beside the Carmo ruins. Move on to Terrace BA for a calmer drink on the other side of Chiado, and finish at Silk Club if you want a late night. All four stops are within a short walk of Baixa-Chiado Metro.

Day 2: Castle views and Martim Moniz

Spend the afternoon exploring Mouraria and the castle hill, then take the Metro to Martim Moniz. Begin with a casual drink at Topo Martim Moniz, then cross the square to the Hotel Mundial rooftop for a wider skyline view as the lights come on. Both are close together, so you can end the evening without a long journey back.

Day 3: Alfama, Graça and a covered finish

Visit Alfama in the afternoon and take in the river view at the Memmo Alfama terrace if access is confirmed. If you prefer a quieter evening, take a taxi to Terraço 23 at Torel Palace for an aperitif. For a final night, head down to Avenida da Liberdade and the covered Sky Bar by SEEN, or choose Mensagem downtown if you want a relaxed ending.

The 10 places at a glance

1. Topo Chiado

How to get there: Walk from Baixa via the Santa Justa lift area or from Chiado, or use the Metro to Baixa-Chiado and walk a few minutes.
How long to spend: One to two hours, or longer if you stay for dinner.
Best time to go: Early evening in spring and summer, when the light hits the convent arches.
Tip: Arrive before sunset and ask for an outdoor table, as the best seats fill quickly.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

2. Topo Martim Moniz

How to get there: Metro to Martim Moniz, then take the lift to the top floor of the shopping centre and follow the signs past the food court.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Late afternoon, so you can watch the light change over the castle.
Tip: Do not give up if you cannot see signs, as the terrace is at the very top of the building.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

3. Terrace BA

How to get there: Metro to Baixa-Chiado, then walk a few minutes to Praça Luís de Camões.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: A weekday early evening for a calmer atmosphere.
Tip: Check the hotel's own page for which terrace is open to non-guests on the day you plan to visit.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

4. Silk Club

How to get there: Metro to Baixa-Chiado, then walk a few minutes to Rua da Misericórdia.
How long to spend: Two hours or more, as it suits a longer evening.
Best time to go: Friday or Saturday for the full atmosphere, or earlier in the evening for a calmer visit.
Tip: Book the restaurant if you want a guaranteed table, and arrive early for the terrace.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

5. Memmo Alfama Terrace

How to get there: Tram 28 or a short taxi to Alfama, then walk up through the lanes to Travessa das Merceeiras.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Late afternoon, when the river catches the light.
Tip: Ask the hotel whether the terrace is open to non-guests on the day you plan to go.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

6. Hotel Mundial Rooftop

How to get there: Metro to Martim Moniz, then walk to Praça Martim Moniz 2 and take the lift to the top.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Around sunset, then stay as the city lights come on.
Tip: Go on a weekday if you prefer a quieter terrace without a party night.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

7. Entretanto

How to get there: Metro to Baixa-Chiado, then walk a few minutes to Rua Nova do Almada.
How long to spend: One hour or more.
Best time to go: Late afternoon for tea, or early evening for cocktails.
Tip: Check with the hotel that the rooftop is open before you set out, as it is not always available for walk-ins.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

8. Terraço 23

How to get there: Take a short taxi from Baixa, or use public transport towards Anjos or Graça and walk the final slope.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: Around sunset on a clear evening.
Tip: Contact the hotel first to confirm that the terrace is open to non-guests.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

9. Sky Bar by SEEN

How to get there: Metro to Avenida or Marquês de Pombal, then walk along Avenida da Liberdade.
How long to spend: One to two hours.
Best time to go: An autumn or winter evening, when the covered terrace makes the difference.
Tip: Book ahead for a window or edge table, as these go first at sunset.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

10. Mensagem

How to get there: Walk from Rossio or Baixa-Chiado, or use the Metro to either station, then follow a map to the hotel entrance.
How long to spend: One to two hours, or longer with a meal.
Best time to go: Early evening, when you can get a good outdoor table.
Tip: Confirm the opening hours and whether you need to book before you go.
Read more | Open in Google Maps

Getting around Lisbon

Lisbon has a Metro, trams, buses and trains, and most rooftops here are near a Metro station. Use the Metro de Lisboa website and the Carris website for routes, tickets and timetables.

The central districts are hilly, and cobbled pavements can be slippery after rain, so wear shoes with a good grip. Walking between Baixa, Chiado and Bairro Alto is possible but steep, and Alfama and Graça involve real climbs, so a short taxi ride is often easier at the end of an evening.

Opening times, prices and transport change often, so check with each venue or operator before you go. For the full guide, photos and FAQs, see https://toptravelinsider.com/top-10-best-rooftop-bars-in-lisbon/.